

Introduction

- Who this book is for 6
- How to use this book 7
- Have you got what it takes? 8
- The first steps 10
- The college syllabus 12

I Context

- Context 18
- Historical context 19
- Fashion time line 20
- The uses of clothing 24
- The language of fashion 34
- Global context 35
- Haute couture 38
- The fashion calendar 48
- Time and timing 49
- Cultural context 51
- Media 52

II From manufacture to market

- Historical background 56
- Manufacture today 56
- Types of producer 59
- Market segmentation 65
- Types of retailer 65
- Price points 71
- The price cycle 73
- Company identity and branding 74

III The body

- Inspiring bodies 78
- Drawing and illustration 82
- Using computers 96
- The elements of design 99
- The principles of design 103
- Bodylines and details 106

IV Colour and fabric

- Colour basics 112
- How colour works 114
- Fibre types 120
- Fabrics 122
- The fashion cycle 128
- Range-building 131
- Fabric suppliers 131
- Fabric fairs 134

V In the studio

- The college studio 138
- Measuring and mapping 139
- Pattern-drafting 143
- Developing the pattern 144
- The toile 148
- Draping on the stand 149
- Cutting the sample 156
- Sewing 157
- Tailoring 160
- Haberdashery 162
- Fit and garment presentation 163

VI The project

- What is a project? 166
- Aims and objectives 167
- Inspiration 170
- Personal creativity and style 172
- Presentation 177
- The crit 180
- Assessment 182

VII The final collection – and beyond

- The college fashion show 185
- Student exhibitions 192
- Your portfolio 194
- Work placement and internships 198
- Careers in fashion 200
- The interview 212

- Glossary 216
- Useful addresses 219
- Fabric and resources 220
- Fashion schools 222
- Museums and costume galleries 223
- Film and literature 224
- Shops and suppliers 225
- Pattern-drafting and sewing terms 227
- Further reading 232
- Index 234
- Picture credits & acknowledgements 240