

Contents

INTRODUCTION An Invitation to Look 7

Map: The Dutch Republic 7

Interpretive Possibilities: In Luxury, Look Out 10

ONE Making and Marketing Pictures in the Dutch Republic 17

Training Artists, Making Pictures 28 Map: Seventeenth-century Amsterdam 29

Marketing, Buying, and Collecting Art 33

TWO Texts and Images 47

Innocence and the Privileged Word 47 Words into Pictures 53

Painters and the Genres of Literature and Art 60

THREE Virtual Realities 71

Realist Strategies 71 Art, Science, and Illusionism 82

Meanings of Verisimilitude 88 Alternatives to Realist Representation 93

FOUR Dutch Ideologies and Nascent National Identity 99

Fragments of National History 99 The Dutch Scene 103

Global Dutch Economy 112 Moral Economies at Home 116

FIVE Portraiture and the Identity of Self and Community 131

Gender, Love, and Status 132 Professional and Civic Identity 141

Identities Preserved: Ironies of Portraiture 150 Architecture of Community 151

SIX Artistic Authority 157

Representing Selves 157 Figuring Art 165 Reproducible Individuality: Prints 172

TIMELINE 182

BIBLIOGRAPHY 184

PICTURE CREDITS 188

INDEX 189